FEDERATION TO PLAN FOR LAWS

To Be Asked of the Legislature and Hopes to Have All Bills Ready at Present.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) WHEELING, Oct. 24.—Consideration of proposed legislation which clubwomen of the state desire to present to the next state legislature held the attention of the delegates when the thirteenth annual convention of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Club convened here this afternoon. In view of the fact that the state law makers will be in session next year, members of the organization hope to be able at this meeting to draw up into form practically all bills recommended by the convention for submission to the legislators. The present session is expected to be one of the most important in the history of the federation. One of the principal topics to be considered will be the proposed library commission. Two years ago the state legislature passed a bill permitting counties to levy a small assessment for public libraries. A bill was also prepared providing for a commission, but it failed to meet the approval of the federation which last year appointed a committee with Mrs. Guy R. C. Allen, of Wheeling, as chairman, to draw up a model bill. This committee is expected to make a report at this session. Prior to the opening today a meeting of the library committee was held. Miss S. C. Colley Page, state chairman of literature and library extension, presided and addresses were made by a number of authorities on library commissions.

The convention proper opened this afternoon. Following the opening preliminaries, committees were appointed and the report of the committee on civics and public health read. An address by Mr. Harriett B. Jones, of Glendale on "The Work of the Tuberculosis League of West Virginia," followed. Miss Louise Kochert, of Wheeling, who recently returned after spending one year as a Red Cross nurse in Europe spoke on "A Woman's Experience in the Hospitals of Austria and the Prison Camps of Russia."

Williams, state commissioner of agriculture on "West Virginia, a Land of Opportunity"; Miss Kate Agley, chairman of the organization committee, Drama League of America on the topic "The Necessity of Better Films in the Theaters."

Blue, of Charleston, state tax commissioner; and Mrs. Roy Emery Fletcher, of New York, chairman of vocational training and guidance, General Federation of Women's Clubs. At the afternoon session tellers for the election of officers will be named and the voting will take place that evening. BAKER PLAYED BY ROOSEVELT IN NEW MEXICO

President Censured for Retaining War Secretary after Jersey City Talk.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 24.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt in his speech here Monday denounced Secretary of War Baker for the latter's reported comparison of Washington's soldier with Mexican revolutionists in a Jersey City speech and criticized President Wilson for putting Secretary Baker in the cabinet in the first place and for keeping him there after the reported comparison.

"This statement of Mr. Baker's acquiescence in the silence of Mr. Wilson," said Colonel Roosevelt, "shows that Mr. Wilson in his heart believes that Washington was no better than Villa or Carranza; that the men of the Revolution stood on a level with the miscreant crew who during the last three years and a half in Mexico have murdered Americans by the hundreds and Mexicans by the tens of thousands. These men have perpetrated every species of outrage upon women and children and have turned all Mexico into a hell of starvation, disease and misery. They have done this with the active or passive assistance of the American government under the leadership of Mr. Wilson, and his cabinet officer now defends them by the foulest slander on the men who made us a nation."

Col. Roosevelt said a man who preaches such doctrines was wholly unworthy to be in the cabinet and the president of the United States.

Col. Roosevelt was given a cordial reception here. After breakfast he was the central figure in a parade. There was a mounted escort, including a dozen former rough riders and two cowboys, who presented Col. Roosevelt with bouquets and were thanked and complimented.
